PREFACE

This cemetery book has been compiled to help other Genealogist in their search for their Ancestors. Also to preserve the information found in cemeteries and plots. As so many plots, cemeteries and tombstones have already been destroyed or the tombstones have faded or crumbled away, we hoped to get some of those that are left.

This book contains only a few (6) of the many cemeteries that are in Macon County. All additional burial information, that was known of is included after the cemetery. If any tombstones or burials have been missed, it was unintentional.

Cemeteries were copied by Robert and May (Bartee) Couch.

UNION CHAPEL CEMETERY
(ALSO KNOW AS WHISENAND CEMETERY)

Located in Macon County, Missouri, on the south line of the SW $\frac{1}{4}$, Sec. 17, T-59, R-17. Start at the intersection of Mo. State Highway 129 and Mo. State Route U, north of Bucklin. Go north on 129 about 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ miles to a gravel road east. Go east about 1 $\frac{3}{4}$ miles to where road is a T intersection. Turn north here and cemetery is adjacent to left side of the road, just a few yards north of the intersection. Drive past cemetery and loop around to the left to get to the entrance. This cemetery is in White Township.

CASH CEMETERY

(Called Mt. Zion Cemetery on Topographical map.)

Very near to the NW corner of Sec. 27, T-58, R-17. Start at the intersection of Mo. State Highway 149 and Mo. State Route Z in the north part of New Cambria. Go north on Z out of New Cambria and follow Z for about 5 miles. Cemetery is adjacent to Z and on the east side and is south of the Mt. Zion Church about 1/8 of a mile. A small out building sits by the entrance and has Cash Cemetery painted on it in black.

WILSON CEMETERY

Located in Macon County, Missouri, either NE $\frac{1}{4}$ or SE $\frac{1}{4}$ or maybe line between the quarters of Sec. 19, R-58, R-17. Start at the intersection of Mo. State Routes Z & VV, north west of New Cambria. Go west on Z and cross Santa Fe Railroad tracks. Continue west for about 350 yards and turn south on a "dirt" road (about 100 yards past the crest of the hill.) Go south on this dirt road to bridge across Santa Fe Railroad. Cross the bridge and road turns west then about $\frac{1}{4}$ mile the road turns south. Go south about 200 yards and cemetery is straight west of road about 400 yards on a line that should pass just south of a pond.

Footstone-J.-stone is broken here.

A footstone type made of sandstone

Footstone-M.I.B.

Several sandstones, may be grave markers?

The only tombstone found was laying on the ground.

GOLDEN CEMETERY

Located in White Township, Macon County, Missouri, SW $\frac{1}{4}$, NW $\frac{1}{4}$, Sec. 30, T-59, R-17. Start at the intersection of Mo. State Highway 129 and Mo. State Route U. A gravel road goes east about 25 yards north of this intersection. Go east on the gravel road to the point where the road bends to the south (about 700 yards.) Cemetery is north of this point on the road, about 50 yards. It is fenced with a nice board fence, therefore, resembling a stock pen. Cemetery is about 125 yards east of the Linn-Macon County line.
